SECTION C: WRITINGQUESTION 5

A paragraph is a series of sentences that relate to the same subject. A paragraph contains only one main topic or theme. All the sentences in the paragraph should be grouped together in such a way that they will develop the main theme.

Qualities of a Good ParagraphA good paragraph should possess

1. Unity: A good paragraph is a short essay in itself, to which a suitable title can always be given.
2. Order: In a good paragraph, the thoughts are always arranged in a clear and logical order.
3. Variety: Lastly, a good paragraph contains both short and long sentences

Writing of a paragraph (45 – 55 words) or 8 to 10 sentences

- ✓ Accurate description of what happened.
- ✓ Is there a mind map to show planning.

An example of a good paragraph

It was only yesterday that I saw a motor-car accident which, but for the timely whistling of the policeman, would have resulted in a ghastly tragedy. I was out for a stroll at the Mall. At the cross-roads, near the General Post Office, I came upon the wreckage of two cars. The smash had been caused by a car coming down, which had swept round the corner of the road and crashed into another car coming up. Luckily no one was killed, though some sustained serious injuries. The driver escaped unhurt. One woman received injuries to her head. She was at once moved to hospital. The policeman on point-duty tried to stop the car coming down. It was coming at a speed of 120km/h, and the driver failed to stop in time.

The purpose of this task is to:

- give learners the opportunity to communicate by means of a short paragraph.
- determine originality in handling the topic.
- assess learner's grammar and language usage.

Criteria	Level 4	Level 3	Level 2	Level 1
Mark	4	3	2	1
Appropriate handling of topic	Handling of topic is appropriate.	Handling of topic is fairly appropriate.	Some attempt at being a appropriate but topic generally handled in mudane way.	Not appropriate. Muddled handling of topic.
Mark	3	2	1	0
