MARKING GUIDELINE

MARKS: 70

This marking guideline consists of 8 pages.

NOTE:

- This marking memorandum is intended as a guide for markers.
- It is by no means prescriptive or exhaustive.
- Candidates' responses should be considered on merit.
- Answers should be assessed holistically and points awarded where applicable. The memorandum should be discussed before the commencement of marking.

INSTRUCTIONS TO MARKERS

Marking the comprehension:

- Because the focus is on understanding, incorrect spelling and language errors in responses should not be penalised unless such errors change the meaning/understanding. (Errors must still be indicated.)
- If a candidate uses words from a language other than the one being examined, disregard those words, and if the answer still makes sense, do not penalise. However, if a word from another language is used in a text and required in an answer, this will be acceptable.
- For open-ended questions, no marks should be awarded for YES/NO or I AGREE/I DISAGREE. The reason/substantiation/motivation is what should be considered.
- No marks should be awarded for TRUE/FALSE or FACT/OPINION. The reason/substantiation/motivation/quotation is what should be considered.
- For questions which require quotations from the text, do not penalise candidates for omitting the quotation marks or for an incorrect spelling within the quotation.
- When one-word answers are required and the candidate gives a whole sentence, mark correctly provided that the correct word is underlined/highlighted.
- When two/three facts/points are required and a range is given, mark only the first two/three.
- Accept dialectal variations.
- For multiple-choice questions, accept BOTH the letter corresponding to the correct answer AND/OR the answer written out in full.

SECTION A: COMPREHENSION

QUESTION 1: READING FOR MEANING AND UNDERSTANDING

QUESTIONS: TEXT A

- | | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| 1.1 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The passage involves YouTube's popularity and the popularity of people who post on YouTube.• Anyone can achieve instant fame when enough people watch his/her post on YouTube.
1 point = 2 marks | (2) |
| 1.2 | Teenagers use the internet freely and fearlessly spend weekends browsing, while parents have fears about it, lest their children are corrupted by it somehow. | (2) |
| 1.3 | Teenagers see YouTube as a platform where they can view videos of all kinds of people and where there is freedom to express themselves as they are. | (2) |
| 1.4 | disapproval | (1) |
| 1.5 | 1.5.1 Metaphor | (1) |
| | 1.5.2 Just as a snowball rapidly gathers more snow and momentum going down a hill, the group's popularity has grown rapidly. | (2) |
| 1.6 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• People who share knowledge about the same topics are the in-the-know club.• They are also ahead of others as far as certain knowledge is concerned. | (2) |
| 1.7 | It makes it more personal – the reader can associate with her on a deeper level as she can communicate with real astronauts and engineers on YouTube . | (2) |
| 1.8 | B / (neologism) | (1) |
| 1.9 | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The motive of the vloggers mentioned (Troye Sivan, Jacksgap, Zoelle) is apparently selflessness and compassion as they have all either donated money to worthy causes or shared self-help with YouTubers.• There could be a hidden agenda though to get a bigger fan base through these worthy contributions.
(Teacher's discretion.) | (3) |

1.10 YES

According to the article one in seven people watch YouTube, and with many people being in possession of a cellphone or iPhone, they can be instantly connected to YouTube.

(Can also use information given in paragraph 10 to substantiate opinion.)

OR

NO.

With the availability of DSTV or TV in general, most people are in the routine of watching it to relieve themselves of boredom or to de-stress, which would not change soon. (3)

- 1.11 The people controlling TV stations, determine what the viewer can watch whereas with YouTube the viewer has access to anything he / she wants to watch. (2)
- 1.12 (Teacher's discretion.)

YES or NO plus valid substantiation.

e.g. Yes: We would normally expect teenagers to be more inclined to watch YouTube as their cellphones are constantly with them and they would want to explore all the different videos available on YouTube.

No: People aged 25–34 are the working force of the country and would need relaxation after a hard day's work, or might need information for job purposes which they can find on YouTube. (2)

- 1.13 Females typically watch more videos regarding cosmetics and makeup, as they are concerned about their appearance. Males typically enjoy watching videos comprising competition and outwitting others. (2)
- 1.14 The graphs in Text B illustrate not only the age groups who view YouTube, but also their areas of interest and all of this serves to show how popular YouTube is, which reinforces the message of Text A, that YouTube is easy to access and is visited by a large number of all age groups. 7.	A low-flow toilet can save many gallons of water ...	G	Install low-flow toilets.
8.	Solar panels convert sunlight to electricity ...	H	Install solar panels on your roof.

PARAGRAPH

Saving the environment can be made easy by starting with small changes in your home that can have a significant impact in the future. Installing skylights and solar tubes saves energy. Switch to compact fluorescent or LED light bulbs to save on energy. Fix leaks in plumbing and install window treatments that maximise energy conservation. By planting barrier trees you can protect your home from the elements. Maintain your appliances and install low-flow toilets to further save the environment. Installing solar panels on your roof can save you loads on electricity bills.

Marking the summary:The summary should be marked as follows:

- Mark allocation:
 - 7 marks for 7 points (1 mark per point)
 - 3 marks for language
 - Total marks = 10
- Distribution of language marks when candidate has not quoted verbatim:
 - 1–3 points correct: award 1 mark
 - 4–5 points correct: award 2 marks
 - 6–7 points correct: award 3 marks
- Distribution of language marks when candidate has quoted verbatim:
 - 6–7 quotes: award no language mark
 - 1–5 quotes: award 1 language mark

NOTE:

- Word count:
 - Markers are required to verify the number of words used.
 - Do not deduct any marks if the candidate fails to indicate the number of words used, or if the number of words used is indicated incorrectly. If the word limit is exceeded, read up to the last sentence above the stipulated upper limit and ignore the rest of the summary.

TOTAL SECTION B: 10

SECTION C: LANGUAGE IN CONTEXT

Marking SECTION C

- Spelling:

- One-word answers must be marked correctly even if the spelling is incorrect, unless the error changes the meaning of the word.
- In full-sentence answers, incorrect spelling should be penalised if the error is in the language structure being tested.
- Where an abbreviation is tested, the answer must be punctuated correctly.
- Sentence structures must be grammatically correct and given in full sentences/as per instruction.
- For multiple-choice questions, accept BOTH the letter corresponding with the correct answer AND/OR the answer written out in full as correct.

QUESTION 3: ANALYSING ADVERTISING

- 3.1 It gives the effect of being more of a statement than a question. The message is conveyed much stronger than in question form. (2)
- 3.2 The words in the graphic illustrate the contamination done to the water by oil. The letters are pulled out of focus and gives the effect of an oily sheen to the water ripples. (3)
- 3.3 They want to show their social responsibility in preserving the environment or future generations. (2)
- 3.4 Roses are part of nature and need clean water to survive. The company's name is Rose, which immediately links to nature and what this company aims to preserve. The logo which is a circular arrow shows that the company wants to undo damage done to the environment and return it to its former health. (3) [10]

QUESTION 4: UNDERSTANDING OTHER ASPECTS OF THE MEDIA

TEXT E: CARTOON

- 4.1 Eve's play piece is the minibus taxi and the "vroom" illustrates the speed with which it travels and goes ahead of everyone and "screech" illustrates the suddenness with which it stops where it likes. (2)
- 4.2 The irony is that one would expect one's car to be safe once it is found by the police and returned in one piece. The opposite has happened here and great damage has been done to the car. Not even the police can be trusted these days. (3)
- 4.3 They seem to be disgusted by Grandma's stroke of beginners' luck. Eve and Madam's eyes are only half open. Madam has her head resting in her hand and Eve's mouth is downturned. (2)

4.4 There are a few stereotypes present:

- All minibus taxi drivers own the road and drive any way they want.
 - Policemen are corrupt and would join in criminal activities such as stripping cars and selling the parts, as well as being easily bribed.
 - Prison security is not up to scratch as prisoners are able to escape quite easily.
 - Government officials are also corrupt and they decide who gets contracts from the government so that they benefit from it.
- (Any 3 explained) (3)
