Read the story and answer the questions that follow.

My name is Rudy and my twin sister is Pasy. We come from a big family. Our house is near a famous big vegetable market. As a big family, we also grow vegetables and my father keeps cattle, sheep and goats on the farm.

Our mother is called Jessica. She grows vegetables and likes going to the market to sell them. She is always busy. She prepares food for the family and we help her with washing the dishes. My mother also shows us how to bake bread and scones. There is a lot that we learn from her.

Mom wants me to go with her to the market. She drives the tractor. Pasy likes staying at home because she doesn't like the noise of many people in the market. They talk, shout, buy and sell, carry and push. I hold Mom's hand firmly as we move through so many people, so that I don't get lost. We sell a lot of vegetables and herbs and we go back home with a lot of money.

Dad is happy when we come back with the money. He also sells milk to a nearby shop. They also keep money to buy other seedlings and lucerne for his animals.
